David Murray meets the Rangers Supporters Trust

Four members of the Rangers Supporters Trust Board today met with returning Chairman, David Murray, and Director of Football Business, Martin Bain, essentially to seek clarification on the details of yesterday's announcement regarding a new share offer, and its likely impact on the Club's short, medium and long term future.

All questions asked by the Trust representatives were fully answered, and the Trust Board will now organise an Open Meeting later this month for members, in order to explain all the implications.

A Trust spokesman commented, "Whilst we can not offer any formal comment until we see the final offer document, we are pleased that we are at least being listened to, and that David Murray was prepared to answer all our questions. I have no doubt that further discussions will take place between the Club and ourselves, on this and other matters, over the coming weeks."
