Supporters Trust condemns vandalising of Davie Cooper statue in Hamilton

The Rangers Supporters Trust today voiced its disappointment at the continued vandalism inflicted on the statue of one of Rangers and Scotland's finest ever wingers, the late, great Davie Cooper.

The latest in a series of attacks does little to fuel good community relations, and with this taking place at a time when international football is under the spotlight, many genuine football fans remember with real fondness how he helped Scotland to qualify for the World Cup Finals, with vital goals against both Wales and Australia.

A Trust Spokesman commented, "We all remember a very skillful player with great affection, and to see his memory sullied in this manner brings the game we all love into disrepute. We sincerely hope the Police catch those responsible, and the courts punish the culprits with a sentence which reflects the offence caused."
